'Secluded' is the key descriptor of Geejam (for evidence see the photo above, taken from its camouflaged outdoor bar deck). This luxurious boutique hotel is tucked away in the San San Hills of Port Antonio, and hidden from view by a hefty wooden gateway. Once the ever-helpful reception staff grant access, you'll find yourself in a lush cocoon of a hotel that comprises little more than three villas, one suite, one small restaurant, a villa with a private pool – oh, and a recording studio that has played host to Amy Winehouse, No Doubt, Snoop Dogg, and Drake.

The room rates are hefty, but you can see where your money is going: on the array of high-tech gadgetry in your room, the 500 thread count sheets, and the seemingly endless supply of fluffy towels...
